BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

From Mexico—Jaurez Establishes his Government at El Paso.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24.—Advices have been received from Juarez in an official journal from El Paso, dated the 16th of September, confirming the reports of his having fixed upon that place as his seat of government.

A letter has also been received from one of his staff to a Mexican officer here, saying that Juarez is confident that the French will have to leave Mexico, and let the people settle their own difficulties.

L' Estafette, the French organ in the city of Mexico, of a late date, has been received. It warmly urges immigration to Mexico, especially of the Southern districts.

It details many highly advantageous inducements offered by the Imperial Government. Southerners can bring their negroes as apprentices, under the conditions prescribed by the Empire.

The Picayune has received advices from Matamoras to the 19th, which say that city is besieged by Cortinas and Escabada, with thirty-five hundred troops. No serious assault had yet been made.

All communication had been cut off, except with Brownsville, from whence provisions were brought.

General Vega is reported as besieging the Imperial forces in Tampico.

The Matamoras correspondent of the Times, in a letter dated the 18th, says: "The whole town is entirely alarmed. Escabada, Cortinas and Cavalges have two thousand five hundred men and twelve pieces of cannon. The foreign pickets have been driven in, and pursued almost into town by Cortinas

For five months there has been a repetition of these scenes. Cortinas, with a force estimated at from 300 to 500, keeps Matamoras so closely besieged that no one dare stir an inch beyond the fortifications.

There is no communication with Bagdad by the other side of the river, and none at all with Monterey and the interior.

General Mejia has ordered all communication closed with Brownsville.

Mejia has about 1,700 men, well armed and equipped, but lacks officers and gunners. The native population is decidedly in favor of the Liberals. It is believed that the numbers of the Liberal force are greatly exaggerated, and it is hardly thought they will assault the town; but they will probably besiege it and try to starve it into submission, or force the Imperialists to a pitched battle.

The convoy, which has so often been driven back to Monterey, has at last started with an escort, of 1,000 French troops and 800 Imperialists. It is reported that it will bring two millions of dollars. Trade is completely dead, and money is scarce and commands a large interest.

LATER FROM MEXICO—MAXIMILIAN'S HEIR PROCLAIMED

NEW ORLEANS, October 26.—City of Mexico advices of the 18th September have been received. Ex-Governor Allen has started a newspaper called the Mexican Times, devoted to sustaining Maximilian. Liberal grants of land to American emigrants are offered.

Maximilian publicly adopted Don Augustine De Iturbide as his heir. He was proclaimed heir on the 16th of September, the anniversary of Mexican independence.

Maximilian has published a decree offering most liberal terms to emigrants. The Emperor is now generally considered as being firmly seated, and he is developing the resources of the country to the utmost of his ability.

DREADFUL SHIPWRECK.—The English papers give the particulars of the loss of the American built ship Eagle Speed, while on her way with four hundred and ninety seven coolies from Port Canning to Demarara. The wreck took place near Halliday's Island, August 22, and the fatal results are thus described: "Three of the Eagle Speed's boats were launched, manned by the crew. Including the coolies who threw themselves into the water on hencoops, the boats saved one hundred and sixty-nine, and all the Europeans. Captain Hoskins' boat made five trips, but the others were soon smashed; one of them had at half-past twelve brought off the captain, whom his own crew refused to help.

"The steamer Lady Elgin, which was near, left for Canning: no hint was given to three hundred miserable wretches who were sinking to launch the ship's cutter, which had not been used, though the one European left and five negroes did so, and with thirty coolies were afterwards found by the steamer. The ship continued to float all that night, and did not sink till seven on Wednesday morning, justifying the opinion of Captain Hoskins. 'Considering the rate at which the ship was sinking, I was sanguine that we would have succeeded in getting the greater portion of the coolies out.' Two steamers were at once sent round from Calcutta, and the Lady Elgin returned from Port Canning. They found three coolie lads on the mast of the wreck, and saved about sixty more who had floated to Halliday's and Blutcher's Islands, where the tigers are said to have destroyed some. The coolies assert that the last European attempted to fire the ship. Of the four hundred and ninety-seven coolies, two hundred and sixty seem to have perished on that terrible Wednesday morning or afterwards in the jungle."

THE MISSION OF MR. CUSHING TO ENGLAND.—A special dispatch from Washington (October 29) to the Baltimore Sun says:

"In connection with the subject matter of the alleged mission of Mr. Cushing to England (whether he goes or somebody else), it may be stated as a matter of belief by well-informed and sound men that the British Government or Ministry is willing to pay the claims based upon the depredations of the rebel pirates which were fitted out in English ports. The reason of this is the fear of the Ministry that the tables may be turned upon Great Britain at some time in the future. It were better for her to pay now even an immense sum than to suffer hereafter not only a direct loss, as we have, in vessels and cargoes, but also as we have in the loss for years of profits upon the carrying trade of so great a portion of our commercial marine by its transfer to foreign hands. The great difficulty of the British Ministry in this regard is the decision of High Chancellor Wood, that the claims are not founded in the law of nations by reason of the fact that the rebel States were a de facto government. But it may be contended by us, that where claims heretofore have been barred by such a fact or legal idea, that the de facto rebel or belligerent power had been recognized by the nations of the earth, or some considerable part of them. The rebel South had recognition from none. Perhaps the British Ministry are willing to be convinced by this suggestion, and thus avoid the hazardous experiment of offending the British people by disregarding the apparent determination or decision of their judges."

MARRIAGE OF A BELLE—GREAT RUSH TO WITNESS THE CEREMONY.—The belle of Williamsburg, New York, who was presented with a prize last winter as the handsomest lady in the city, was married Tuesday evening. The rush was very great, and two or three hours before the time appointed for the ceremony, the street was completely blocked up, and upon the opening of the church, the crowd rushed in, clambering over the tops of the pews, and climbing in at the windows, so that considerable injury was done to the church, and most of the invited guests crowded out.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, FRIDAY, NOV. 3, 1865. NO. 301.

THE ROBBERS' CAVE UNDER THE CITY OF NASHVILLE—A TRUE STORY.—The following local item in the Nashville Times seems to have been the basis for the extraordinary romance telegraphed from Nashville on Saturday:

"As the cave mystery has gotten into print, and as a vast amount of curiosity is evinced regarding it, we will state, so far as known, what foundation there is for the exaggerated reports flying about. Near the cemetery, to the right of Summer street, on the railroad, is the entrence to sort of a cave, from which the military authorities are slowly removing earth, which is probably thrown up by parties inside. A person who was knocked down and robbed, it is alleged, made the discovery that his assailants entered the opening, and communicated to the authorities the hiding place of a gang of villains.

"At any rate the military have a guard over the spot, and are excavating the place, and guards are placed over one or two private vaults in the cemetery which are supposed to communicate with this underground hiding-place. It was rumored last night that a man had broken from one vault and escaped, although fired at by the guard. All sorts of stories are prevalent regarding the existence of caves beneath the city—the retiring places of Murrell and his gang. However, up to the present writing, nothing decisive has been developed. The veritable circumstances of the case revive a great many stories of the subterranean Nashville, that quite astonish those addicted to the marvellous."

SUFFERING AMONG THE FREEDMEN AT WASHINGTON.—The National Freedmen's Association of the District of Columbia have published an appeal, earnestly calling upon the people of the North and the friends of humanity generally to come forward and aid them in their efforts to relieve the suffering people in and around the National Capital. The following is an extract:

"Owing to this extreme destitution, the most frightful mortality exists, as many as eighty coffins per week being furnished by the Quartermaster's Department, most of which are for children. It is the opinion of physicians practising among them, and of other close observers, that three-fourths of these children die from neglect and want. In the family of a soldier who lost his life in battle, five out of the ten children have died since March, 1865, from the above causes. In another, three out of seven children of a soldier drafted in December last have starved to death within the last three weeks. The mothers, in both cases, were prostrated with sickness, and all their supplies were suddenly and entirely cut off."

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S OPINION OF A. H. STEPHENS.—The Chicago Republican says:

"For the information of those who may be inclined to find fault with President Johnson for receiving Mr. Alexander H. Stephens at the White House, we will say that in this he does no more than his predecessor would have done under the same circumstances. Mr. Lincoln always spoke of Mr. Stephens with great kindness. He used to say that of all the Southern leaders, Stephens was the one against whom he could feel no animosity. Mr. Johnson has not treated him any more kindly than he would have been treated by Mr. Lincoln. Besides, if he can make Stephen's information or influence of any service to the Government, why should not the President see him, talk with him and use him?"

In Paris the cholera rages with considerable violence, as many as two hundred cases a day being reported. The journals publish a report addressed to the Emperor by the Minister of Public Works, M. Behic, and M. Drouyn de l'Huys. They recommend a diplomatic conference for the organization of sanitary measures in the East, where the infection has undoubtedly originated.

—The Chicago papers have a sad story to tell of a girl who, after having been seduced, was charged with having robbed the man who ruined her. When arrested, she was temporarily confined in an upper story of one of the city hotels. Leaping from the window of the room to the ground, she sustained injuries which will undoubtedly prove fatal.

—Two Prussian officers, Captain Calow and Major von Schack, fought a duel recently at Magdeburg. They agreed to fight until one of them was killed, and twenty-eight shots were exchanged before Captain Calow was fatally hit. It is to be hoped, for the credit of the Prussian service, that there are but few such marksmen in the army.

—Ketchum on Saturday formally entered his plea of guilty, with a motion for postponement of sentence until the end of the next term of court, in order to preserve his competency to testify as a witness in a large number of civil causes now pending. The motion was granted.

—The Petersburg papers of Monday announce the death of Timothy Rives, Esq., a well known citizen of Virginia. The Express says that Mr. Rives expired Sunday at his residence in Prince George county, near Petersburg, after a brief illness of about ten days, of pneumonia.

—The Universalists of the United States have recently held their national convention at Middletown, Connecticut. They passed a resolution to raise $100,000 for missionary purposes in the Southern States.

—By the census report of 1860 there were thirty-six establishments for mining in the States of New York, Illinois and Virginia. These employed one hundred and fifty-eight hands. The capital invested was $72,880.

—Three young ladies were drowned the other day while sailing near Peoria, Illinois. Two of them were daughters of Captain W. Van Benthusen, who lately lost three sons in the army.

—Major-General Thomas having reported in favor of General Palmer's administration of military affairs in Kentucky, the President has overruled the application for his removal.

—The Cincinnati bridge over the Ohio river will be the largest in the world. Its total span will be 1,057 feet.

—A Frenchman is said to have discovered a substitute for rags in the manufacture of paper, for which he has obtained a patent.

—Burglars, in Baltimore, blew open the safe of Stone, Darby & Co., Friday night, and carried off $2,100.

—Mr. Grau and twelve principal artists of the Italian opera arrived from Liverpool in the City of New York.

—Lucille Western brings with her from Europe an entirely new play, dramatized from Miss Braddon, entitled "Eleanor's Victory."

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

PISTOLS AND COFFEE FOR SEVERAL.—Considerable excitement was created yesterday morning by the circulation of an exaggerated report of an affair of the previous night. It is said that the city police, when on their rounds in the vicinity of Vinegar hill, encountered a small party of soldiers behaving uproariously, breaking out windows, &c. They sought to arrest the guilty parties, who were soon reinforced, when a general handling of small fire-arms took place. We understand that the night watch maintained their ground persistently and ultimately succeeded in arresting twelve or sixteen of the offending parties, who were caged until yesterday morning and then turned over to the military.

We regret to be called on to note such occurrences, because this ought to be the new era of good feeling between soldiers and citizens, and every one should yield obedience to the constituted authorities, whether military or civil. We are living under a restored system—no internal differences will again threaten the perpetuity of the Union—and we have thus the strongest inducements to cultivate a cordial regard. Let us do it by kindly but firmly discountenancing every thing which is likely to produce irritation.

THE CHOLERA.—The authorities of various cities, who are not more liable to the fell-destroyer than is our place, are adopting measures to preserve the public health in view of the westward movement of the disease in Europe. In many cities and towns, south as well as north, it is required of every householder to cause the sidewalk and gutter in front of his premises to be thoroughly cleansed. twice a week. Other important sanitary measures have also been adopted. We had a most thorough removal of filth yesterday through the instrumentality of the heavy rain—a perfect deluge—but we trust the people will see that in the days to come no like accumulations remain unabated for a solitary day. However, to have a well regulated city and proper cleanliness, municipal law requiring the performance of certain amounts of sanitary duty, by householders, is absolutely necessary. Whether from oversight or other causes, we do not pretend to decide; the neglect exists; and the true remedy for this endangerment of public health will be found in the imposition of severe penalties.

KILLED.—The remains of a negro man, named James Utman, were brought to the city yesterday during the forenoon from Wayne county, and the report is that he was killed by parties the day or night previous. It appears that he was a shoemaker and conducted his business on Wilmington street. By industry and prudence he had accumulated some money, and visited the county first named for the express purpose of buying land. The probability is that the guilty parties were incited to their act by the funds he had in his possession. They also secured the horse the deceased rode.

It is reported that Col. Clapp has such information as will lead to the detection of the perpetrators of the misdeed. We hope so for the sake of justice as well as from the consideration that the murdered freedman is reported to have been polite, unassuming and free from any of those objectionable qualities which generally produce so much complaint against persons of his class.

ENTITLED TO VOTE.—By a note from the Governor's Private Secretary, we learn that the following persons will be entitled to vote at elections hereafter to be held in this State, in accordance with the provisions of an ordinance of the convention:

Randolph—N C Jorrell.
Rockingham—P M Winchester.
Union—D A Covington.
Cabarrus—Rufus Barringer.
Lenoir—Henry F Bond, James Herring.
Caswell—Thos C Dodson, G J Farish, James Malone, W H Henderson, Jordan L Motley, Stephen Neal.
Robeson—Jas Gaddy.
Chowan—Geo M Parrish, G W Parish.
Gaston—Benj Black.
Henderson—R O Blythe.
Chatham—S Edwards.
Pitt—Wm J Moye, Caleb Cannon, Jos L Ballard
Washington—A L Chesson.
Wilkes—B F Johnson.
Bladen—James M White.
Granville—John C Usrey.
Gates—Wm E Costin.
Wake—Carter B Harrison.
Polk—Hazzel Hicks.
Person—Jas W Townsend.
Surry—Wm Foy.
Hertford—G C Moon.
Pasquotank—Wm H Davis.

ELECTED.—Dr. Craven, the esteemed pastor of the M. E. church in this city, has been re-elected to the presidency of Trinity College. The friends of the reverend gentleman in this city are unanimous in the wish that he should accept the post, especially since it has transpired that offers have been made to him to take a similar position in another State. North Carolina needs her own noble sons not less in literary than other departments of life which are intimately connected with her future prosperity.

WITHDRAWN.—Dr. T. L. Banks has withdrawn his name as a candidate for the sheriffalty from Wake county. This still leaves a number of aspirants in the field.

DEBATING SOCIETIES.—There is nothing in which young men can engage better calculated to interest and profit them than debating societies connected with libraries. The season is at hand for their formation and we hope that the young men of the city will combine at once with such a purpose. They will not merely derive pleasure from the investigations of history and the like, but may acquire valuable knowledge of the arts of debate. They will find when older that the adoption of such a line of policy was for them the beginning of prosperity, intellectual developement and genuine happiness.

COURT OF CLAIMS.—It has been suggested to us as highly important that North Carolina should have a court of claims. We presume that the propriety of establishing one will be properly weighed by the first legislature. At all events, there is ample time to discuss the matter in the future. Our first and highest concern is to remove every shade of suspicion against our loyalty. This may best be done by a unanimous expression of confidence in the indissolubility of the Union, the justice of President Johnson's reconstruction policy, and the fidelity of Gov. Holden in giving it application in our case.

GALA DAY.—People do not ordinarily prefer dark clouds to a clear sky, nor shadow to sunshine; but the rain storm of yesterday, prevailing for the space of about twenty hours, appeared to gratify the human family universal in this vicinity. The truth is, the season of drought in this State has been so prolonged as to dry up wells and springs, stop mills and otherwise seriously embarrass town and country. It is not much cause for wonder, then, that there has been large rejoicing. The relief received warrants it to the full.

U. S. DISTRICT COURTS.—Special terms of the district court of the United States for North Carolina will be held—

In the Albemarle district, at Edenton, 2d Monday in November.

In the Pamlico district at Newbern, 3d Monday in November,

In the Cape Fear district, at Wilmington, 4th Monday in November.

Judge George W. Brooks will hold the different terms.

COUNTERFEITERS.—We observe that they have been overhauling a number of counterfeiters in Petersburg and as they appeared to be well supplied with imitation $20's and $5's, some of the bogus may reach here. Let our people look out.

ANOTHER SHOOTING.—A difficulty occurred last night, in the vicinity of the North Carolina depot, between parties whose names we could not learn. It is said one of the belligerents fired at his antagonist, the ball missing the mark and taking effect on a bystander. The police repaired promptly to the scene of action, but what was affected we did not learn. We hope it may prove to have been only a small, unimportant scrimmage.

READ the advertisement of Devlin & Co., clothing merchants at Newbern. They have in store a superb stock of goods and with their facilities for adding to present supplies will no doubt be able to offer retailers good inducements.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT IN NORFOLK.—About three o'clock on the afternoon of Friday last, the steamboat Coinjock, engaged in towing flats from the dredging machines employed in Norfolk harbor, exploded her boiler with a violence which completely destroyed the boat. No one on board escaped death, and the body of only one of the victims, Mr. Wm. Patton, of Baltimore, was recovered. Captain Patrick McCarrick, Jr., who commanded the boat, Mr. William Foster, her engineer, and a colored fireman, are known to have been on board.

The disaster, horrifying in itself, is rendered doubly so to our readers, by the fact that captain McCarrick was well known and deeply beloved by many of them. He is the son of Captain McCarrick, of the steamer Eolus, was, during the war, a midshipman in the Confederate Navy, and had but a few days held the position which proved fatal to him.

His many virtues well merit notice, but our pen, even though love direct, is unqualified to the duty.—[Petersburg Index.

"How do you like the character of St. Paul?" asked a parson of his landlady one day. "Ah! he was a good clever old soul, I know, for he once said, you know, that we must eat what is set before us, and ask no questions for conscience sake. I always thought I should like him for a boarder."

The Toledo (Ohio) Blade, says a vote was taken in the jail of that city, on election day, and that fourteen votes were cast, two Democratic and twelve Republican. The Democratic Record, of that place, says the vote is a fair index to the general character of the two parties.

Railway official (very kindly)—"Nice child, that, mam. What age might it be?" Delighted mamma—"Only three years and two months." Railway official (sternly)—"Then I shall require a ticket for it, please."

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever."—ANDREW JOHNSON TO GOV. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

THE FEDERAL CAPITOL.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR.

WILLARD'S HOTEL,
Washington, October 28.

Yesterday I attended to some business at the Departments and took a short turn round the city.—Washington has changed much since I was here in 1861; there is some bustle, seemingly more business, more gaiety, more dress, show, and, I fear, more vice and corruption. The war has increased the population, the business and the extravagance; and the general demoralization caused by the war is not more apparent, anywhere, than here.

The work on the Capitol is progressing and when finished we are assured by those who ought to know that it will be the finest building in the world. The Treasury building is not finished, but when completed will be an immense affair, and is sufficiently large to answer all the purposes of our inflated national currency.

The city is constantly thronged with strangers, though the number from the Southern States is comparatively small, and the hotels and places of amusement are well patronized. Last night I visited Grover's theatre and witnessed the Irish drama of Arrahna-Pogue, which is having quite a run. The piece is pretty fairly done up by a tolerable company. The Florences are at the Washington theatre; and at the Canterbery they are running a new piece called "The Female Clerks of Washington, or Early's last Raid." This last named place is said to be making money for the proprietor.

A number of members of Congress from Northern and Western States have arrived, and the politicians are arranging their programmes for the coming session. I have no idea that any of the members from the rebellious States will be admitted at the beginning of the session, though I expect to know more about that in a day or two, as I shall endeavor to get the views of leading Republicans relative to the matter. I am fully satisfied as to the generous feelings entertained by the President for the Southern people, but the Republicans will be inflexible in their demands.

The election of Wade Hampton as Governor in South Carolina, reported here by telegraph, causes surprise and regret, and should that be followed by the defeat of Mr. Holden in our State, I think the Carolinas may prepare to remain a while in the cold.

Gen. Grant is here busily engaged mustering out volunteers, reducing the volunteer army and reorganizing the regular army.

SUNDAY MORNING, Oct. 29.

Washington is not the most desirable place in the world to spend Sunday in, but with a good appetite and a moderate amount of piety one gets on very well. Speaking of appetite reminds me of breakfast, and breakfast reminds me of how some of ye divinities, encased in red balmorals, enjoy the good things of this world. This morning one of the divinities aforesaid sat opposite me, and as she eyed me (on account of my good looks, I suppose,) I eyed her, purely on account of her good looks and purely to see how she enjoyed her breakfast. I had requested one of the freedmen to bring me some steak and onions, sausage balls and a cup of coffee, and was counting the prongs of my fork and trying scientific experiments with my knife, when my divinity across the way looked over the bill and gave her order. I thought she belonged to real aristocracy, though she may have been an authoress or an actress; she was tall, hair black, features good, nose prominent, eyes piercing and devellish, and in fine, taken altogether, she made up a good piece of baggage, I thought.—There's sentiment and intellect for you, I mentally exclaimed. She raised her eyes from the bill, and addressing ye African—beg pardon, freedmen—said: "Coffee, oysters, steak, rare; boiled eggs, mackerel, sausage, potatoes, hominy, buckwheat, pigs feet, liver, trype, hot rolls and egg bread: quick, now." Ye African departed and returned in about four and a half minutes with a tray, on which there were many dishes, which, when placed before ye angel of the black hair, seemed to a plain countryman about a good breakfast for six. I took my time over my steak and onions, looking over the evening paper while I sipped my coffee, thus occupying about three-quarters of an hour; and when I left the occupant of the balmoral was still at work, seemingly with a good appetite, having given several orders for new dishes to the freedman aforesaid. She may have been one of "our set," a member of the first circle, or she may have belonged to the numerous family of "shoddy" which the war has brought as drift wood to the surface. I know that she had a good appetite, but fear she'll be ailing to-night; that will depend a good deal, however, on her digestive organs.

And speaking of piety reminds me that I visited the church of Rev. Dr. Gillett this morning, in company with a friend, and heard a most impressive and eloquent discourse. The Doctor is a Baptist minister, has one of the most refined and influential congregations in the city, and is eminently conservative and friendly in his feelings towards the South. He is a Northern man, but never degrades the pulpit, I was assured, by the introduction of politics. At the close of the service I was introduced to him and several members of the congregation, all of whom enquired in the most earnest and friendly terms as to how we were getting on in North Carolina. I assured them that our people were, as a general thing, well disposed, and that if kindly treated by the government they would most cheerfully and willingly perform all the duties of citizens. One of the ladies (Northern) expressed the hope that the President would soon finish up the pardon business by the issuance of a proclamation of amnesty to all of us, to which I naturally replied, amen. I can assure our friends at home that the kind feelings felt and expressed for us here are not confined to Southern residents, but are shared in common by those of Northern origin.

But I am reminded that this letter is getting too long for the space the pressure of business allows the Progress for reading matter, and I must bring it to a close.

To-morrow I have an opportunity to see Mr. Seward and other members of the Cabinet, and I shall endeavor to ascertain the feelings of those who control the government concerning us and the programme to be pursued relative to the returning States. I observe no coldness or stiffness here, in official quarters or elsewhere, towards a man because he hails from the South; on the contrary, all with whom I come in contact seem to exhibit a real warmth of feeling towards the South. P.

The Trial of Mr. Davis.

According to the New York Herald, it has been decided to bring Mr. Davis to trial before the Supreme Court on the charge of treason in levying war against the United States. All other allegations and charges against Mr. Davis will be abandoned. There will exist no questions of complicity between himself and others in any form—the desire of the United States Government being to decide, in Mr. Davis's case, wherein treason consists. The names of the counsel who have been engaged to assist Attorney General Speed in conducting the case for Government are given below. One is, or was lately, a Federal General. The others are, respectively, lawyers of the States of Massachusetts and New York. Mr. Davis's counsel are gentlemen, eminent lawyers—one of them—Mr. O'Conor—ranking at the head of his profession. The Herald says that Mr. Johnson resolved to bring Mr. Davis to trial as long ago as last March, and continues:

It was also determined that the Wirz trial should be the last trial by court-martial. The trial of Mr. Davis will be before the highest tribunal in the land. It is not known as yet whether Chief Justice Chase will preside, but it is presumed that he will.

THE TIME SET FOR THE TRIAL.

At the Cabinet session in August, when the details were arranged, it was decided that the trial of Mr. Davis should immediately follow that of Wirz, but the long delays in that case may tend to delay that of Mr. Davis.

THE PROSECUTING COUNSEL.

The Attorney General was ordered to select three counsel to aid him in the prosecution. Mr. Speed is a native of the South, and it was decided that another Southern and two Northern lawyers should be retained. It was suggested that it was desirable that the army should be also represented. The following attorneys were finally selected as the prosecuting counsel:

Hon. James Speed, Attorney General of the United States.

Hon. John H. Clifford, formerly Attorney General of Massachusetts.

Major General Lowell H. Rosseau, member of Congress elect from Kentucky.

William H. Evarts, of New York city.

THE COUNSEL FOR THE DEFENCE.

It has been understood for several months past that Mr. Davis had selected his counsel or had accepted the services of the following gentlemen:—

Charles O'Conor, of New York city.

Ransom H. Gillett, of Albany, N. Y.

It is probable that the prisoner will himself supervise, if he does not conduct, his defence.

The Synod of North Carolina.

This ecclesiastical body has been in session in this town since Wednesday evening last until Saturday night at 11 o'clock.

The Rev. Colin Shaw was chosen Moderator, and E. Nye Hutchinson and H. G. Hill were chosen Clerks.

The usual business adjudicated before such bodies was transacted satisfactorily.

Charlotte was chosen as the place, and Wednesday after the 2d Monday in October next, the time of the next meeting of Synod.

During the session, the question of re-union with the Old School Assembly at the North, was discussed. Rev. Messrs. Jordan, Atkinson, McKay, Smith, and others, participating. The Synod decided to let the question stay where it is, without any action in the premises.—Fayetteville News of 30th.

MILITARY COMMISSION.—Yesterday morning the case of McGill and McMillen was closed by the argument of the Judge Advocate for the prosecution, which appears in full in to-day's issue.

Although the examination of the witnesses is over, and the arguments delivered, the findings of the court will probably not be punished in less than two months. It is reasonable to suppose that a deep interest is felt in this case by the citizens of Bladen county, and that the decision of the court will be eagerly looked for.—Wilmington Journal.

PEARLS AND RUBIES.—White teeth cropping from out of ridges of ruby, a breath spicy as the airs from Araby the Blest. Who can resist such fascinations? To realize them, to perpetuate them, to make the mouth a casket of pearls and rubies, and every sigh a gush of fragrance, all you have to do, fair ladies, is to use that matchless vegetable preparation, Fragrant SOZODONT.

THE FEELING THROUGHOUT THE STATE.—Indications from all parts of the State, says the Wilmington Herald, are most cheering for the success of the National Union candidate in the approaching election. We firmly believe that Mr. Holden will be most triumphantly elected Governor of this State by the powerful voice of the people on the 9th day of November next.

We are gratified to be able to state that the 28th Michigan Regiment of white troops, commanded by Lt. Col. Shaffer, has arrived here and will relieve the colored soldiers now on duty. This will be good news to our citizens, who certainly prefer, if troops are to be stationed here, that they should be of their own color.—Newberne Times.

ELECTION NOTICES.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE COUNTY OF WAKE.—Having been solicited to become a candidate for a seat in the next Legislature in the House of Commons, I take this opportunity of announcing myself a candidate. If elected, my vote on all occasions will be for the strictest and most economical management of all State and county affairs. I shall oppose the borrowing of money by issuing State bonds, which, at the present time, would have to be sold at a very great sacrifice. Economy is, in my opinion, the only safe road.

I have been raised, and have lived all my life, and am known to nearly all the voters in the county. My views and opinions are, therefore, as well known as I could make them, should I visit every precinct. I am opposed to negro suffrage and negro testimony. If elected, I promise to make you a faithful servant.

I shall support W. W. Holden for Governor.

H. O. PARKER.
nov2-tde

ANDREW JOHNSON, HOLDEN UNION TICKET. DR. WM. SLOAN, of Gaston County, will be supported most heartily for the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, by all loyal men looking to early restoration and general harmony.

Dr. Sloan's record will furnish no data for his rejection at the hands of the Federal Congress. This, the Charlotte District, is now the 6th.

nov1-3t* MANY VOTERS.

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE RUFUS K. FERRELL as a candidate for the House of Commons of the next General Assembly. Election on the 9th November. oct31-tde

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE MAJOR WM. F. COLLINS a candidate to represent Granville county in the House of Commons of the ensuing Legislature. His sentiments will be published in the form of a circular "To the People of Granville." Read it. oct31-tde

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this county for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them ought to be repealed.

He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with their indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence I shall strive to merit it by my services.

Very respectfully, yours, oct30-tde B. F. MOORE.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Wake county, at the ensuing election on the 9th of November, and if elected, will serve you with industry and fidelity.

It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know what I am for and against. I am for David A. Wicker, alias Snider, for Superior Court Clerk, and against Bunting, alias Mose, and Buck Moore.

Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, [oct27-tde] DAVID A WICKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH CONGRESsional District, composed of the counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Nash, Johnston and Wake:

FELLOW-CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election precludes the possibility of a canvass.—Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all.—The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are, for the most part, vain and unnecessary. There is a question, however, which seems to be agitating, to some extent, the minds of the people, both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored, fellow-citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights of both person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
A H ARRINGTON.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exposure, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones. Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as our whole business experience we have not known of a success of any articles without merit—advertising surely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we find an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demenstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

PROCLAMATION,

BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.
